Grand Holiday Greetings From Tom Netting

‘Tis the season to be reading and Grand Hyatt San Antonio Managing Director and In-House Santa invites the community to come to Story Book Hour and enjoy the holiday décor, delicious cookies and of course, holiday classics read by Netting himself. Storytimes will take place Tuesday, December 2, 9 and 16 at 10 and 11 a.m.

A Window Into A Grand Holiday Community is Invited to Grand Hyatt Window Unveiling

A grand event will take place at 10 a.m., Thursday, November 20 when the Grand Hyatt San Antonio proudly unveils its 24 by 20 foot holiday window designed to promote reading together during the holidays. Beautifully bound books will dangle in free-hanging mobile fashion against a backdrop of 1,680 red and amber LED light curtains and 10 triple light balls. The centerpiece will be a chair that looks as though it came straight from the Mad Hatter’s Tea Party that will serve as a throne for a wacky St. Nick to delight youngsters with holiday classics during story times. In addition to the fabulous window, guests will also be treated to The Grand Hyatt’s holiday décor throughout the hotel. In keeping with the hotel’s modern ambience, shades of gold, amber, turquoise, orange, fuchsia and lime will take the place of traditional red and green. It’s a fun and funky holiday with square wreaths, trees ranging in size from 7.5 to 12 feet and more than 10,000 colored lights.

Chocolate Books You Can Sink Your Teeth Into

It’s easy to sink your teeth into a holiday classic when that classic is made from chocolate! The Grand Hyatt will unveil a grand chocolate book display at 10 a.m., Thursday, Nov. 20, immediately following the unveiling of the holiday window. Grand Hyatt Pastry Chef Daniel Keadle will recognize all faiths for their traditional holidays in this oversized, colorful, delicious sculpture which features more than 300 pounds of chocolate and will take more than one month to create.

Tis the Season to Be Reading with Your Family

Reading with the Family during the holidays is important. San Antonio Library and San Antonio Library Foundation have provided materials from librarians in SA on why reading is important as well as information on the Children's Book workshop. A perfect compliment to the GHSA message -- Tis The Season to be Reading!
